

My wife and I want the Do Not Call List to stay as it is. Do not change this. This is the only protection that a consumer has against telemarketers. If I want to do business with a company, I will go to them. We do not, we repeat, we do not want them calling us. Thank you.